Priyadarshini Ohol

Originally from a suburb of Bombay, Priyadarshini supported her Mechanical Engineering degree through modelling and ran a couple of businesses. Later, her effective activism led to a mild flirtation with politics and the U.S. State Department's IVLP program. The obvious next step was moving to Delhi where she took acting lessons while working towards a set up merging her experiences. That is when a ski accident in the Kashmir devastated her tailbone and knee rendering her supine. She took the time presented during recuperation after surgery as an opportunity to paint. Post recuperation, she moved into the lap of the Dhauladhar Himalayas to paint full time. She now lives, paints and performs at her studio in Dharamshala. She can be contacted on the phone at 9967303965 / 7807324665 or emailed at ohol.priya@gmail.com

Mrudula Nair

reachmrids@gmail.com

Mrudula Nair is a self-taught artist. She works with acrylic and oil paint on canvas and enjoys painting everything from portraits to townscapes. Her talent comes from many hours of practice throughout her youth.

Originally from Mumbai, her works are mostly abstract, though she works on almost any kind of painting depending on her clients' requirement.

She has worked on large pieces of art measuring 15 feet and above.

She has worked on large pieces of art measuring 15 feet and above.

She has illustrated books and journals and has held workshops for kids and adults. The subject matter is what determines her style, and due to her interest in techniques of applying paint, the texture varies from smooth to impasto or heavy brushstrokes. She uses bright colors and loves vibrancy in her paintings. To me abstract painting is intuitive and what next, comes to you as you keep painting. I love abstract art and find great joy in it" says mrudula

Kamal Koria

kkoriagreen@yahoo.co.uk

Kamal Koria is a UK based professional artist with a successful career that spans over 30 years. His works have been widely exhibited with numerous works purchased by private collectors. His practice has made a significant difference to the South Asian arts market in the UK and across the continents.

K.Koria is a self taught artist, though he was a registered at C.N College of Fine Arts, Ahemdabad, he rarely attended . He chose to spend his time as a freelance graphic artist, making money from his talents. Despite his non attendance K.Koria graduated with a 1st class degree, and quickly went on to pursue a career as a graphic artist.

From a very young age, K.Koria had a desire to travel and when an opportunity was suggested to live and work in the UK, he was quick to accept. The Young K.Koria quickly established himself as UK's first Asian Graphic Artist and became a lead designer in the market of Diwali Cards, Wedding invitations and Bhangra CD cover designs.

As he approaches retirement, K.Koria focuses his attention building his portfolio of contemporary paintings, his mastered ability is distinguished by his expert use of colour, technique and composition. Inspired by the rich culture of colourful India, his paintings poetically captures a glimpse of human nature and nostalgic sense of his childhood memory.

Today, Kamal also has a considerably growing online following where he shares new and developing works. Details can be found at www.kkoria.com or follow him on face book.

Reeta Jain

ritajain602@gmail.com

What started as a hobby has now become a dream to pursue. Art has helped me in more ways than I could imagine. I like and prefer subjects which are colourful and have lot of details. Also try to incorporate textures in my paintings.

Nisha Arun Gupta

jainnishakol@gmail.com

Nisha's art has a discerning and constructive view of the world which resonates in her artwork. Her art is a journey through life filled with passion, hope, dreams, joy and sorrow. She portrays on canvas our most sincere and ardent emotions that are lost within us somewhere. Her work has the ability to make your heart break with pride and bring tears to your eyes with a smile, all at the same time.

You can tirelessly observe her work for hours and still discover a conspicuous detail the next time you see. Her art will provide you the wings to traverse through your own exquisite expedition.

Tasneem Wagh

tassu_9@hotmail.com

She is a budding artist look-in to create her own space. Having seen the world through various lenses, she portrays the vibrant shades of natural beauty and colors in form of Paintings. She is a science Graduate and pursuing the craft of painting since last 3 years and successfully managed to balance personal life and passion for painting. She has more inclination towards abstract, Texture and fine art. It's been a dream come true for her to get an opportunity to exhibit her paintings and live to her motto – The Speaking Wall.

Mahua Nath

Having designed fashion accessories sold by leading global brands like Promod, Zara, Monsoon, to name a few, Mahua has always been an artist. Her designs have been featured, and interviews with her have been published, by leading fashion magazines especially depicting the latest trends in fashion and accessory designing. Mahua has been a student at the Indian Institute of Fashion Technology as well as at the National Institute of Fashion Technology, and is also a Gemologist from GIA (Gemological Institute of America). She used her formal education in Gemology while designing and explaining exquisite diamond jewelry destined for high net worth clients for a highly respected jewelry brand in India (C Krishnaiah Chetty). She's an erstwhile international fashion accessories designer and gemologist, turned freelance painter and sculptor.

Dedicating her time now to being a freelance artist, she paints or sculpts to enjoy, without a timeline driving her brush. Her art takes us back in time to ancient worship and battles and forts, brings us back to modern romanticism, and teases us with spring time joie de vivre with a bouquet of fine wine in the sunshine.

rupamitra2006@yahoo.co.in

I have been conducting solo painting exhibitions for more than a decade

now and have had the privilege to have worked across art houses all around India. My paintings have socially relevant themes which strikes a cord with the intended audiences. As a lady painter, I feel very strongly to portray the causes close to my heart through my work and I feel deeply passionate towards the specific themes and genres that I delve into.

Colors have always attracted me and energized every mood and feeling within me. At early age I could associate the depth of every emotion with various colors, hence colors became the power of my expressions.

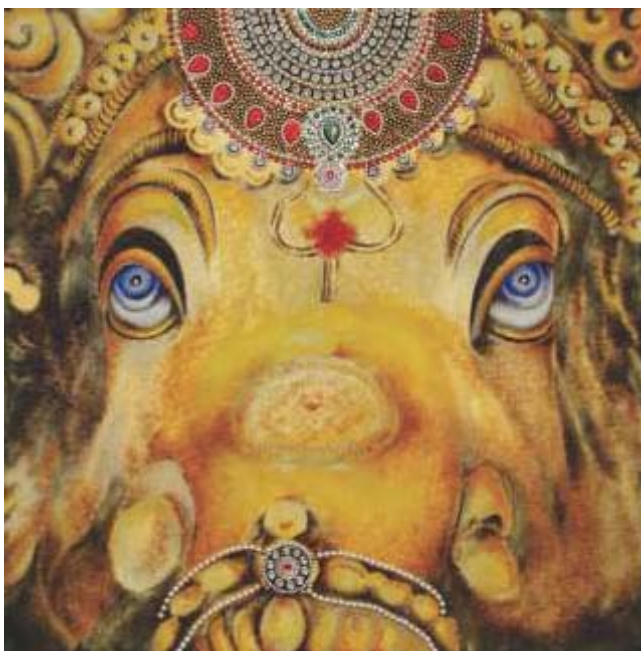

At the age of ten, I started painting. Passion for colors and texture grew with every stroke.

Cherishing this zeal, I studied at Sophia

Polytechnic and achieved a merit in my Diploma in Textile Designing.

For more than a decade I enjoyed hand painting on silk fabric in vibrant acid dyes with Chimona Arts. It gave me an utter pleasure to see my work displayed in leading garment houses like Amarsons, Benzer, Kala Niketan, Sagar & Indian States. There has been a huge demand for my work in Indian Film Industry as well as in international market of Dubai, US, London, Colombia, Spain, France and Hong Kong.

Working with texture on fabric for so long, the next step was to give outline to fabric. Hence, I advanced towards Costume Designing. Obtaining the Diploma in Costume Designing from IFA, I worked with channels like National and Sahyadri & for few ad films I have done character designing.

A Mumbai based self taught artist, my favoured mediums are Soft Pastels, Charcoal and Water Colours. The effect of the mediums on different textures of paper fascinate me. Being an avid photographer, I am inspired to paint the sights I see, in an effort to recreate the magic of my experiences. I am inspired by works of the Great Master artists from around the world. I was a corporate professional who decided to pursue my interest in painting and writing full time, a desire that has been undying since childhood. I am a member of the Art society of India.
